

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Jason Rak,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,

Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13254

Amended

Appellant's Reply Brief Overdue

Date of Notice: 9/23/2020

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-16-07022CI

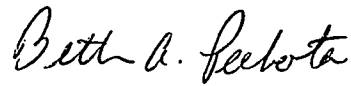

The appellant's reply brief was due on 9/17/2020. As of today, the Court has not received the reply brief, a motion to extend the time for filing the reply brief, or a notice that no reply brief will be filed. Accordingly, counsel for the appellant is directed to show cause why a fine of $100.00 should not be imposed under Appellate Rule 510(c). Counsel's response to this order to show cause must be made under oath, and it must be filed on or before 10/7/2020.

Also, on or before 10/7/2020, the appellant must file one of the following: (1) the reply brief, accompanied by a motion to accept the late-filed reply brief, or (2) a proper motion for extension of time to file the reply brief, or (3) a notice that no reply brief will be filed. If the appellant files a motion, it must state the reasons why the appellant could not file the reply brief, or at least a motion to extend time, by the due date. Any motion will be submitted to a judge for decision.

Failure to comply with the provisions of this notice will result in additional sanctions.

If the appellant files the brief, the appellant must also e-mail a PDF copy of the brief to pleadings@akcourts.us. If the appellant does not file the reply brief, this matter will be submitted to the court on the appellant's brief and appellee's brief alone.
